Insure with an expert who shares your passion.

At iTOO we understand that classic cars require specialist valuations and claims handling techniques. Methodologies vary greatly from standard motor insurance, which is why at iTOO our insurance for classic cars has been designed by our experts, who are all collectors themselves.

Additional Benefits:

- Appreciation Clause
  – up to 20% at claims stage
- Depreciation in value
  – compensate client for depreciation in value following an accident and restoration
- New acquisitions automatically covered for 7days
- Temporary removal and storage
  – vehicle in imminent danger

Why insure your classic car with iTOO?

Service and expertise from experts who understand this is not a hobby, but a passion.

With iTOO Classics your collectable is insured for the correct, agreed value determined by a respected, specialist valuator. With no value limit, cover can start as low as you'd like, because our policies have been designed for assets that appreciate beyond the original retail price over time. This includes adjustment for change in the value of money, vehicles generally older than 20 years, as well as cover for a handful of nominated drivers 30 years of age or older. Collectors younger than 30 can take advantage of our static cover option.

With cover targeted to insure vehicles that are not used on a regular basis, beyond collectables, iTOO also considers highvalue modern and rare vehicles, like the Ferrari 458 Speciale, F12 TDF, Porsche GT2/3 or LaFerrari.

WE ARE DIFFERENT.

As passionate collectors we offer a stand-alone specialised policy as opposed to a bundle option. Unlike most of the local market, we understand that assets can be impaired even after restoration.

Our Depreciation Clause

Our Depreciation Clause states that if repair work furthers damage or drop in value, then you're compensated for the loss. We also take the time to see that any damages or repairs are handled by our panel of approved specialist craftsmen.

Complete peace of mind

To give you complete peace of mind the minute you first open the door, any new acquisition is automatically covered for seven days whilst temporary removal and storage is offered for vehicles in imminent damage.
