

Years of hard work and dedication deserve cover by industry experts.

Over the last 20 years, claims against a wide range of medical practitioners and medical institutions have steadily been increasing.

Legislation such as the Consumer Protection Act has made the public more aware of their rights and consumer activism. This trend is exacerbated by an increase in legal practitioners specialising in medico – legal law.

At iTOO our Medical Malpractice experts understand this and are constantly adapting and designing policies to include evolving liabilities. If you provide any form of care, treatment or advice, ensure your years of expertise are covered by ours.

Why get your Medical Malpractice covered by iTOO?

Service that’s simply the best in class. Expertise we’re always willing to share.

iTOO Medical Malpractice goes far beyond simply traditional medical practitioners. We include cover for complementary health treatments and services such as fitness instructors, beauticians and spas, ambulance services and pharmacists.
